Raganjali School of Music proudly presents the Manch Pravesh (debut recital) of Asha Raghupathy-Alur, student of Guru Swati Panda.

Asha has trained under Swati Panda for 8 years and her singing style reflects the Gwalior-Kirana Gharana Gayaki. Manch Pravesh, which translates to "Stage Entrance," occurs when a student, after years of rigorous training, has gained stamina, skills and a sizeable repertoire of compositions to suitably represent the traditional art form of Hindustani Classical Music.

Asha will be accompanied on Tabla by Shri Harshal Tole and on Harmonium by Shri Christopher Pereji.

We cordially invite you along with your family, friends, and music lovers to make this a truly memorable event.

Please join us for dinner after the recital. We request you to respond to this evite to help us to plan better for this event.

Additional Parking is available at the Brickstone Parking lot on 300 Brickstone Road, Andover MA 01810
